STAY AHEAD OF THE PACK WITH THIS GO-FAST GEAR:

1. ZOOTO SPORTS ZENITH // By using 2mm rubber and adding 3mm panels in key areas, this wetsuit offers superior insulation and buoyancy without compromising flexibility. $600; zootosports.com 2. ZIPP SPEED WEAPONRY 343 // Ride the middle ground between deep-section rims and shallow climbing wheels. The 343 delivers low weight and aerodynamics, with a more shallow-profile front wheel and a deeper rear. Available in clincher or tubular. Clincher, $1,950; 744 grams (front), 884 grams (rear); zipp.com 3. PROFILE DESIGN LIGHTNING STRYKE // Unique aero-bar extensions emanate from a single point, reducing material and offering a strong aero position. $180; 375 grams; profile-design.com 4. SPECIALIZED TRIVENT SHOE // Key ingredients: breathable mesh uppers, two-strap security, a pull-on heel hook, and silver bottoms that reflect the pavement's radiant heat. $160; specialized.com 5. FUEL BELT HELIUM 4 // Refuel without breaking stride. This reflective hydration belt gives you instant access to 32 ounces of fluids stored in four hand-size eight-ounce bottles. $45; fuelbelt.com 6. SELLE SAN MARCO ASPIDE TRIATHLOEL // This seat's tried-and-true design now has a thicker nose, with plenty of gel, for ultimate comfort while in the time-trial position. $200; 185 grams; sellesanmarco.com 7. ORCA KILLA TRI SUIT // Choose this one-piece when wetsuits aren't allowed. It acts like a second skin, allowing moisture to escape while repelling water. $275; orca.com 8. GIRO ADVANTAGE 2 // With this ventilated lid descended from pro models, you'll blur by competitors in good style. $150; giro.com —RYLE DUFFALO
